ROGER SMITH,

WARSAW, August 29.

THE provinces which are to be dismembered from this country, and which are to be incorporated with the States of the House of Austria and Brandenburg, are to retain, for two years, their rights and customs; but the Ecclesiastics and Convents are to surrender up half their revenues. In the province, seized by the Court of Vienna, the number of monasteries amounts to 1783, 96 of which are Dominicans, or Jacobins. As these religious have been the principal incendiaries in stirring up the Confederates to act, they are probably on the eve of being deprived of what is most dear to them in the world, that is to say, of the greatest part of their vast revenues; after which they will have time to repent of their imprudent zeal, when it will be no longer in their power to excite fresh troubles.

SEPTEMBER 2. Just at the departure of the post, Captain Wilde, and Mr. Brandt, arrived here, in quality of couriers, with the important news, that the peace between Russia and the Porte is happily concluded.

STOCKHOLM, August 28. Last Wednesday all the four orders assembled in Diets at the usual places, for the first time since the revolution. The Marshal of the Diet opened the Plenum of the Nobility with a long panegyric upon the King, and congratulated the House of Nobles on tranquility's being restored. After which the new form of government was read there, as well as in all the other orders.

The propositions which his Majesty made to the States yesterday, in the hall of the States, were also read, and are as follows:

"Whereas the affairs of the government are by Divine Providence brought into such a situation, as to admit of the speedy conclusion of the Diet; but, nevertheless, as the States neither will nor can separate, before they have given the assistance to the King and kingdom, which the government requires in every branch of it, his Majesty has found it necessary to lay the following points before the States for their deliberations:

"1st, That the usual contributions may be agreed to, and resolved by the States.

"2d, That, according to the antient custom and the laws of the Kingdom, an extraordinary supply may be furnished for the expences of the late King's funeral, and for the coronation.

"3d, As his Majesty cannot know how far these two articles above-mentioned, together with the ordinary revenues of the State, will be sufficient to answer the necessities of the kingdom in these times, his Majesty graciously invites the States, according to the 47th section of the form of government, to choose certain persons, of the three Orders who direct the affairs of the Bank, with whom his Majesty may deliberate upon the means to be used in certain cases, and in which some secrecy is necessary.

4thly, That the States, by the measures they take with regard to the Bank, put it in a condition, the sooner the better, to assist in restoring money affairs to some order, in a manner consistent with the laws.

"The States will agree with his Majesty, that the situation of the kingdom requires, and that the wishes of the whole country are, that this Diet, which has now lasted fourteen months, to the great expence of the kingdom, may speedily come to an end: And as the King is highly desirous, in these difficult times, to ease his faithful subjects as much in this respect, it is his Majesty's pleasure, That the States take these points into consideration immediately, in order that he may receive their report upon them within fourteen days, within which time they will also find opportunities to draw up the final resolution of the Diet."

In consequence of these his Majesty's propositions, the four Orders resolved, that the Deputation of revenues and expences, and that of the Bank, shall immediately make the projects of the contributions, mentioned in the first and second points, and give their report about the third and fourth.

It was also proposed in the House of Nobles, and agreed to by the other Orders, that all the four Orders should wait on his Majesty, with a deputation of one hundred and twenty persons, to return thanks for his Majesty's paternal care, by which the nation has been restored to its true liberty; and to desire that a medal may be struck, in commemoration of the happy event.

The King having appointed Count Horn to be one of the new Senators, he took his place in the Senate yesterday.

September 5. Last Friday night the King rode round to all the Burghers Guards, which patrolled about the town, and after thanking them for their care of the public security, acquainted them, that now there was no further occasion for their performing that service.

The King hath caused to be distributed to the poor 10,000 measures of meal, of 20lb. each.

ALEXANDRIA, in Egypt, July 17. The Chick Daher having learnt that two Pachas, sent by the Porte to retake Sidon, had been joined under the walls of that city, by 30,000 Druses, and that they had formed the siege of that place, he marched immediately from Acre to go and fight them at the head of his troops. The Muruale (a Persian people, by origin, who inhabit the plains between Acre and Sidon) whom he had engaged to second him, followed. These united forces did not amount to more than 18,000 men. But notwithstanding the disadvantage of numbers, this brave old warrior passed, in sight of the enemy, the river Bergul, which runs near Sidon; fell upon the Pachas, who were astonished at his boldness; cut in pieces their troops, who made some resistance, and drove the Druses over the mountains. It is pretended that the Pachas were killed in the fight.

On the other hand, Ali Bey is making levies in Syria, and collecting all the troops he can. His partisans think he will very soon re-enter Egypt at the head of a powerful army, and that he is also supported by the Russians. It is said, that the Chick Aman, Prince of Sadi, or Upper Egypt, suspecting that Mehemet Aboudaab wants to deprive him of a part of his territories, has taken arms, and is able to make a powerful diversion in favour of Ali Bey.

FROM THE FRONTIERS OF TURKEY, August 17. The Porte does not seem in the least disposed to consent to the independance of the Crimea, nor indeed to make any other important concession. The Grand Visir has declared that he would, at the risk of his head, oppose any peace, which should be dishonourable to the empire; and Osman Effendi has protested, that he would sign nothing, which should be contrary to antient treaties, and which should tend to cast any stain on the Grand Signior's possessions. Osman Effendi added, that the Porte had 200,000 men in the field, who were in excellent order; and that she was determined to risk every thing, rather than accept of a peace, which may wound the Mahometan religion, and the laws and dignity of the Ottoman empire.

VIENNA, September 28. We have this morning received advice, that the congress of peace, which was held at Fockzany, is absolutely broke off, because the Turkish Plenipotentiary would not consent to the independency of the Crimea, as demanded by the Empress of Russia.

Extract of a Letter from the Frontiers of Poland, dated September 16, 1772.

"We are informed, by authentic letters from Warsaw, that M. de Saldern, Ambassador from Russia, hath just received a courier from Fockzany, with advice that the congress was broken off the 21st of last month, and that the Ministers Plenipotentiary of both parties set out from thence the next day.

"These letters add, that the Russian troops, which are in Moldavia and Wallachia, have, in consequence, received orders to march immediately towards the Danube; and that they will be replaced by several regiments of the same nation now quartered in Poland."

MARSEILLES, September 2. Letters from Alexandria, in Egypt, dated July 5, confirm, that Ali Bey, having been joined by his allies, had gained a compleat victory over his enemies, and that the army he had overcome was commanded by five Pachas, three of whom lost their lives in it, and that the battle lasted two days.

PARIS, September 4. The last letters from Aleppo, by way of Marseilles, confirm the victory of Ali Bey over the Kiaja of the new Caimacan of Egypt, and the taking of Beroot, with 13 Russian vessels; adding that the Chick Daher had taken Damascus, and that Ali Bey was preparing to reap the fruits of his victory, by marching into Egypt.

LEYDEN, September 10. We have just received advices from Poland, dated August 29, which inform us, that the decision of the affairs of Poland is fixed for the 18th of this month; that the peace between the two belligerant powers will be signed three days before; that at the above-mentioned time the Prussians, the Russians, and the Austrians, will take possession of those parts of Poland, which shall be assigned to their Courts; and that orders are already given for that purpose, among others, to General de Berling, and to the Baron de Saldern, who will remain at Warsaw till the 20th of September, &c.

HAMBURGH, September 11. The important news from Warsaw, of a peace between Russia and the Grand Turk, is confirmed by letters from Berlin.

LONDON, OCTOBER 1.

THE Lords Lyttleton, Temple, and Camden, have been observed to have courted each other's company lately with uncommon assiduity. Their Lordships, particularly the two former, have often very long conferences together.

Lord Mansfield has interceded very strongly with a Great Personage in favour of the Dukes of Gloucester and Cumberland, and his Lordship's endeavours to reconcile the family differences now subsisting, have been seconded by several persons of great influence with his Majesty.

It is reported that the Duke of Mecklenburg, alarmed at the progress of the Swedish and Danish troops, which surround his dominions, has applied to the Courts of London and Petersburgh, for their performance of the guarantee treaty subsisting between them.

OCTOBER 2. The King of Prussia has taken possession of the district of Great Poland, situate between the Drage and the Netze, as well as of the country of Prussia and Pomerania on both sides of the Vistula, which the crown of Poland has hitherto held under the name of Polish Prussia, except the cities of Thorn and Dantzick.

The Cabinet Council did not break up yesterday till after four o'clock: It is rumoured it was in consequence of some intentions against Denmark.

Extract of a letter from Smyrna, August 21.

"This day a terrible fire broke out here, and continued burning all the next day. Three thousand houses, which made three parts of the city, were destroyed; from 3 to 400 ships, 16 mosques, 12 caravanseras, 7 bagnios, 9 Synagogues, and 8 public markets have been all consumed; a large quantity of corn, 2000 sacks of rice, and 150 bales of coffee, have been lost in the conflagration. The whole loss is computed at twenty millions of dollars. It did not effect the English quarter."

Extract of a letter from the Hague, September 25.

"Letters received here from Hamburgh advise, that the late revolution in Sweden has excited the attention of the Court of Petersburgh; and a report prevails that the Empress of Russia has given orders for 25000 men to march immediately into Finland; but the motives which have induced her Imperial Majesty to take this step remain a mystery."

OCTOBER 3. It is said that a very considerable naval force will, towards the end of next month, depart for America; part of which is to cruize on the banks of Newfoundland, and the other Southward as far as the Gulph of Florida.

It is said that application has been made to a Great Personage, that no English subjects may be permitted to join the colony to be settled on the Mississippi.

OCTOBER 5. The congress at Fockzany is broke up. France has gained her end, and Europe is returned to the very situation in which it stood at the beginning of the negotiation with Spain. Sweden will take up arms against Russia; Prussia and Poland, and France, will join the Confederacy, and the Turks will once more lift up their heads. Austria, Russia, and Prussia, foreseeing this event, have seized upon parts of Poland, in order to make them, during the war, serve the same purpose as Saxony did in the last war with the King of Prussia.

The French and Spaniards are prepared to strike a blow in both Indies. The former have not yet withdrawn their 8000 men from the Mauritius, nor the latter their fleet from the Havana. Bengal and Jamaica are both in jeopardy; the one from its defenceless situation and the discontent of the Negroes; the other from the rapine of the Company's servants, and the gambling of the Directors.

OCTOBER 7. By advices from Berlin we learn, that the Prussians are indefatigable in building fortresses, and putting garrisons in every place of consequence in Polish Prussia.

It is reported that Lord Howe will shortly be appointed to the command of a squadron of observation to be stationed on the Coasts of France and Spain.

We hear that a Great Personage has signified an inclination of permitting the Queen of Denmark to visit this kingdom, but Lord Mansfield still urges the impropriety of it.

We hear a certain illustrious heir apparent was in disgrace a few days ago, for wishing, as he declared he did from his heart, that Wilkes might be Mayor.

The 2d ult. arrived at Plymouth, eight transports from the Downs, to take on board the 6th regiment, bound for the West-Indies.

It is reported that Captain Walter Nugent, a near relation of Lord Clive, was killed in a duel a few days since in Ireland.

OCTOBER 8. The contents of the budget for the ensuing year, are expected to give the greatest satisfaction, as, we hear, Lord North is assisted in forming it by some of the first personages in the kingdom.

A number of persons of rank and fortune are now making application to government, for grants of lands near the Mississippi.

An Ambassador extraordinary is soon expected here from Warsaw, where some important negotiations are said to be on the carpet for supporting the political balance in the north of Europe.

On the 19th of last month died, at his house in Dublin, Lord Lambert, Earl of Cavan, who is succeeded in his title and dignities by his Cousin German, Major General Richard Lambert, of the Foot Guards, now Earl of Cavan.

They write from Copenhagen, that the King has advanced 50,000 crowns, without interest, to the projectors of a scheme for erecting a foundary in Norway for cannon and mortars, and has agreed to take all that shall be cast, even at a higher price than the proposer demanded.

OCTOBER 9. The reason why the Parliament is to meet earlier the approaching session than usual, is, that the affairs of the East-India Company, which are now almost at an entire stop, may be discussed without loss of time.

Lord North now enjoys the greatest honours any commander ever possessed in this kingdom, as he is a Knight of the Garter, Chancellor of the first University in Europe, and Minister of State.

It is remarkable, that Lord Chatham, Lord Dartmouth, Lord Suffolk, and Lord North, were all educated at the little College of Trinity, in the University of Oxford.

It is much expected that Lord Camden will be soon appointed to some important Office in the Administration, for he has lately been honoured with two visits from Lord North.

A gentleman lately arrived from France says, that during the time he was at St. Malo's, no less than twelve vessels arrived there with Flour from North-America.

OCTOBER 10. It is plainly enough to be seen, that a most vigorous war threatens Europe, from the North to the South; by which the States of Holland find themselves highly embarrassed.

There are letters from Gibraltar, by his Majesty's ship the Scorpion, which give an account that a very strong fleet of Spanish men of war was arrived there, and that they had landed within sight of the garison 5000 soldiers; and that it was apprehended they had some design upon that place.

It is the general opinion of all the discerning, that Poland cannot be dismembered without a [illegible]

OCTOBER 13. Advices is received, that the King of Prussia has taken possession of Cracow, and placed a garison of 5000 men there to defend it for the King of Poland against his rebellious subjects: but the same advices say, it is apprehended that he has other designs in view.

All the latest advices from Spain agree, that all the Spanish settlements in the South Seas are putting into a state of defence with all possible dispatch.

Advices are said to be received from Lisbon, that the castle of Efframadura in Spain, had revolted, and had murdered the Governor thereof, and that a body of troops had marched to prevent any further ill consequences.

Bets were on Thursday laid by a great Man of Smyrna, that our assistance either by land or sea would be demanded by four different powers on the Continent.

On Saturday it was strongly reported that there has been a revolution in another Northern Kingdom, and that the Potentate is absolutely deposed.

The Earl of Bute, we are told from very good authority, is now on a visit to Lord Camden at his seat at Chiselhurst, in Kent, where he has been for some days.

Extract of a letter from Hamburgh, October 5.

"We have just received advice in this city, from Copenhagen, that the Queen Dowager is just delivered of another political scheme, to advance her son Frederick to the throne; she has got it propagated, that the King is insane, and therefore it is very improper to trust him with the reins of government any longer, and wants her son Frederick to be appointed Regent till the King is restored to his senses. However, we further learn, that at the King's own desire, he is to be examined with regard to his insanity; and I doubt not but it will prove groundless; and I think he cannot better show it, than by banishing her and her son out of the Kingdom, which is the only way of restoring peace and tranquillity to that unhappy country."

OCTOBER 14. On the 28th of September Messieurs Wilkes and Bull addressed the Liverymen of the city of London, on the expiration of their sheriffalty.

The next day being Michaelmas, came on the election of a Lord-Mayor for the ensuing year.------A poll was demanded for Aldermen Halifax and Shakespear, together with Aldermen Wilkes and Townsend.---The poll was continued to the 6th of October, when the numbers were,

For Mr. Alderman Wilkes, - - - -	2301
Mr. Alderman Townsend, - - -	2378
Mr. Alderman Halifax, - - - -	2126
Mr. Alderman Shakespear, - - -	1972

During the polling there were many altercations between the parties, which are too numerous and lengthy to reprint here.---On the 7th of October a scrutiny was demanded by Aldermen Halifax and Shakespear, against Aldermen Wilkes and Townsend upon which Alderman Wilkes (and a gentleman in Alderman Townsend's name, who was out of town the whole of the time demanded a scrutiny on their parts.---The declaration will not be made 'till the 18th of November.----The reason given for demanding a scrutiny is, that there are upwards of 300 bad votes on the side of Messrs. Wilkes and Townsend, and no above 100 on the other side.

It is a truth beyond contradiction, that there remained upwards of 400 staunch Wilkites who had not polled at the end of the poll. By this it is plain to a demonstration, that the popular cause gains ground daily.

The committee at the Paul's Head are incessant in their labours, and they have made very important discoveries, particularly a body of no less than 25 voters of Halifax, all in a lump, who will be disqualified.

A correspondent observes, that the ambitious views of the King of Prussia seem to indicate that a general war is not at any very great distance, except the powers of Europe become tame spectators, while this petty monarch dismembers the great and once flourishing kingdom of Poland. He wishes for the peace of Europe; that this common disturber of mankind may be most heartily humbled; and that instead of Poland, which seems at present to be deserted by all the powers of Europe, the dominions of this haughty Prince may become the subject of partition amongst the contending parties, which will be the only means of securing to Europe the sweets of a lasting peace.

Something more than common takes up the attention of the great people at the west end of the town. At this time all the officers of state seem in commotion.

We are informed that the Lord Chief Baron of the Exchequer has actually resigned, and though it was expected he would be succeeded by Mr. Baron Smythe, yet we are now told the Attorney-General will succeed him, and that Mr. Wedderburne will be appointed Attorney-General.

A violent storm happened about the 25th of September, and a number of vessels were lost on the coast of England.

The SPEECH of Mr. Alderman WILKES, to the LIVERY at GUILDHALL.

"Gentlemen, and Brother Liverymen,

"I WANT powers to express the deep sense I have of the distinguished honour you have done me by a majority of your free suffrages. I find you are now, on the most frivolous pretext, to be harrassed by a scrutiny; but I know the event will only confirm the justice of the poll, and demonstrate the fairness and honour of the proceedings of my friends during the whole election.

"The present Sheriffs, gentlemen, in the course of this election, have maintained a firmness and impartiality, which are the most pleasing omens of a patriotic conduct for the whole year of their sheriffalty.

"During the present contest a remarkable paper has been published relative to the liberty of the press, one of the great bulwarks of all our liberties. I find it authenticated by one of our own body, a Freeman of Pater-noster-row, Mr. Thomas Evans. In that paper we are told, that a gentleman came into this city, and threatened the printer, in consequence of his having published their minutes, that if he did not give up the person or persons who favoured him with the proceedings of that committee, the House of Commons would proceed against him with the utmost severity. I rejoice, gentlemen, that the honest printer has not been frightened by so insolent and illegal a menace; and I here declare, that he, and every other fellow-citizen, shall have the most spirited legal support from me, both for his own private protection and security, and for the effectual punishment of every violator of the laws of our country, and the franchises of our city. While God continues me health to do my duty among you, the powers with which you have armed me, shall be exerted against every attempt of violence and injustice, even from the highest usurped authority. Our rights, as constituents, to be fully informed of the proceedings of our Representatives in Parliament, has been clearly demonstrated, but the force of truth is not likely to prevail against men, lost to all sense of shame, even so attrociously wicked beyond the example of the most barbarous nations and times, as to corrupt the great fountain of public justice, by erasing a judicial record, 'till that hour held almost sacred in every civilized country. I congratulate you, gentlemen, that you possess several excellent Magistrates, who in a good cause have the fortitude to meet the rage of a Senate, composed chiefly of hirelings and slaves. I wish I could rank your present chief Magistrate among that number; but as we have among us Magistrates of ability, firmness, and intrepidity, real and warm friends of the people, I am persuaded that our liberties and franchises are safe against every hostile attack. The event must be happy, the defeat of despotism, the victory of the constitution.

"I can never, gentlemen, sufficiently acknowledge the honour you have done me, by the unanimous resolution of your entire approbation of my conduct during my past shrieffalty. Permit me likewise, on this occasion, thus publicly to return thanks to [illegible] through the whole course of the last year he has given repeated proofs of his steady attachment to the cause of liberty, and to the duties of his office. He has shared with me the various fatigues and difficulties inseparable from our late charge. I have regularly experienced from him the most obliging readiness to lessen the weight of whatever was painful or oppressive, and to co-operate in every measure for the common welfare, and the good of this capital. Your private feelings, gentlemen, will, I am sure, justify me in this public tribute of the gratitude I owe to so worthy a friend, and excellent a Magistrate as Mr. Alderman Bull."

ST. JAMES'S, October 9. His Majesty has appointed the right honourable Simon Earl of Harcourt, Lieutenant-General and General-Governor of his Majesty's kingdom of Ireland.---The right honourable Lord Viscount Stormont (now at the Court of Vienna) to be his Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the Court of Versailles.

DUBLIN, September 22. We have the pleasure of informing the public, that by the present favourable weather, the harvest is in great forwardness all over the kingdom; and that one fortnight more will be sufficient to collect the fruits of the season, nothing remaining but some oats, which will be fit to cut in three weeks. Many farmers have taken advantage of the present dry weather to sow their winter corn, whereof many thousand acres are now in the ground.

BOSTON, NOVEMBER 16.

Extract of a letter from London, September 20.

"As by the Royal Charter granted for the American Colonies, a reservation is made to the Crown, of one fifth part of all the Silver Ore that shall or may, at any time be found in that country; and as it seems that ---------- Robinson, Esq; and other enterprising gentlemen, are now about entering largely into the mine business in America; in order, therefore, the more effectually to secure to the Crown, his Majesty's said fifth part of the produce of such mines as are already, or shall hereafter be discovered, and worked in the said Colonies, it is said, a patent is now making out, appointing Edmund Quincy, Esq; (with a salary of 600l. per ann.) to be his Majesty's inspector-General of all the mines that now are, or that shall hereafter be discovered on the Continent of America, with full power and authority to substitute one or more Deputy or Deputies, to act in the different parts of that country."

We hear that Sir Francis Bernard, bart. has lately had a large estate left him and his children, by a relation that lately died in England, particularly a seat in Aylesbury, which a few years ago was elegantly fitted up by John Wilkes, Esq.

By letters from Barbados, we learn, that it was expected that Sir Francis Bernard would be appointed to that government.

We have advice from England, that Lieutenant Dudingston, who commanded the Gaspee armed schooner that was burnt at Rhode Island, is promoted to the rank of Captain, by his Majesty's express command.

Tuesday last arrived here Captain Benjamin Beal, from St. Vincents, in 27 days, by whom we have advice, that the troops from this place under Colonel Dalrymple, also those from New-York, &c. were preparing for the expedition against the Indians on that Island, who were daily burning some of the plantations of the English, and frequently skirmishing with the soldiers:---That several had been killed on both sides; but that the troops could not proceed by reason of one ship that had not arrived from New-York, with part of the troops on board; some said that Governor Leybourn had not given orders to proceed: That a body of soldiers were marched to guard a narrow passage, to prevent the Indians from coming from the mountains, where a large body of them were encamped: That the troops began to be sickly. Captain Brabazon O'Hara of the 14th regiment died there, and seven or eight soldiers of that regiment.

NOVEMBER 19. On Sunday, the 15th current, Captain Joseph Doane, jun. sailed from Chatham harbour, on the back of Cape-Cod, and soon after, viz. about 10 o'clock in the forenoon, saw a schooner with a signal of distress, and, going on board, found one man only in her, who appeared to be in a great fright, and gave the following account, viz. That the day before, the said schooner, Thomas Nickerson, master, sailed from Boston harbour, bound to Chatham; that about two o'clock the next morning they saw a topsail schooner; that the man who gave this account, fearing he should be impressed, slung himself with a rope, and let himself down over the stern; that four boats, with armed men, came on board; that, whilst he was thus hanging over the stern, he judges by what he heard, that the master, mate, and one man, were murdered, and a boy carried away alive; that he heard talk of burning the vessel, but it was finally agreed to leave her to drive out to sea with her sails standing; that after they left her, he came upon deck, found none of the crew, but saw the marks of their being murdered; and Captain Doane says, that when he came on board, the decks were bloody, the chests all broke open and plundered, and the head knocked out of a barrel of rum, and two or three gallons only left in it.

This account was sent by Captain Doane, to Edward Bacon, Esq; of Barnstable, who immediately transmitted the same, by express, to his Excellency the Governor, and went, on the 16th, from Barnstable to Chatham, in order to examine the person found on board, after which he was to send another express to the Governor. At one o'clock this day we have no further intelligence, except that a traveller from Chatham confirms the account as above.

As soon as his Excellency had acquainted Admiral Montagu with the intelligence (the ships under his command being all unrigged, and laid up for the winter) he ordered the Lively frigate to be fitted for sea, without loss of a moment's time. This was about nine o'clock, on Tuesday, and the next morning, by day-light, the ship was ready to sail, but waited for a pilot until noon, when she was towed down by the boats belonging to the fleet.

An express was also immediately sent to Rhode-Island, for his Majesty's ships there.

NOVEMBER 23. Thursday evening the second express came in, with advice, that the person found on board, had been examined before two of his Majesty's Justices, who had thought proper to dismiss him, the father of the two men, supposed to be murdered, having been present at the examination, and consenting to his dismission; but upon a view of the examination, and consulting with such of the commissioners for trial of piracies, &c. as were in town, his Excellency thought fit to issue his warrant for apprehending the person, and the express went off before sun-rise the next morning, and reached Barnstable about midnight. The Justices, upon further reflection, have thought fit to take the person again into custody by a fresh warrant; and upon a second examination, had committed him to Barnstable goal, in order to receive directions from the Governor; and the last evening, about seven o'clock, he was brought under a strong guard to the Province-House, and examined before the Governor, Admiral Montagu, the Lieutenant-Governor, and the Secretary, Commissioners as aforesaid, and about eleven o'clock was committed to goal, in order to his trial. The man's name is Amell Nickerson. Two of the persons missing, viz. Thomas Nickerson, and Sparrow Nickerson, were cousins german to him, the third, Elisha Newcomb, married their sister, the fourth, William Kent, jun. was a boy of the same town, about 13 years of age.

Yesterday the Lively frigate, dispatched by the Admiral immediately upon receiving the first account, returned again, without gaining intelligence of such a pirate schooner being seen there.

It is now made certain that there is no pirate schooner on the coast, which has been so long rumoured; but, from strong marks of suspicion, the person confined in goal, who originated the report, we hear has perpetrated a most inhuman and unprecedented crime.

On Thursday last the Freeholders and other Inhabitants of this town, being duly warned, legally assembled in Faneuil-Hall, to consider the report of the Committee, appointed at a former meeting, on the 2d instant, to state the rights of the Colonists, and of this province in particular, enumerate the violations thereof that have been made, and form a letter of correspondence to the other towns. The said report was first read by the Chairman, and afterwards by the Moderator, the Honourable John Hancock, Esq; and thoroughly examined and amended by the town, when it was accepted by a full vote, nemine contradicente. The town then voted, that these proceedings be printed; and ordered the Town Clerk to sign printed copies of the same, in the name and behalf of the town, to be sent to the Selectmen of each town and district in the province, and to such other gentlemen as the Committee shall direct. Thus the matter is left to the candid consideration of our Brethren and Fellow Subjects in general.

The following is an extract of a letter, reported at the late meeting of this town, and then ordered to be sent to the towns in the country.

"A free communication of your sentiments to this town, of our common danger, is earnestly sollicited, and will be gratefully received. If you concur with us in opinion, that our rights are properly stated, and that the several acts of parliament, and measures of administration pointed out by us, are subversive of those rights, you will doubtless think it of the utmost importance, that we stand firm as one man to recover and support them; and to take such measures, by instructing our representatives, or otherwise, as your wisdom and fortitude shall dictate, to rescue from impending ruin our happy and glorious constitution. But, if it should be the general voice of this province, that the rights, as we have stated them, do not belong to us, or that the several measures of administration are no violation of these rights, or that, if they are thus violated and infringed, they are not worth contending for, and resolutely maintaining.---Should this be the general voice of the province, we must be resigned to our wretched fate; but shall for ever lament the extinction of that generous ardour for civil and religious liberty, which, in the face of every danger, and even death itself, induced our fathers to forsake the bosom of their native country, and begin a settlement on bare creation. But we trust this cannot be the case: We are sure your wisdom, your regard to yourselves and the rising generation, cannot suffer you to doze or sit supinely indifferent on the brink of destruction, while the iron hand of oppression is daily tearing the choicest fruit from the fair tree of liberty, planted by our predecessors, at the expence of their treasure, and abundantly watered with their blood."

PHILADELPHIA, NOVEMBER 23.

Extract of a letter from Bermuda, to a gentleman in this city, dated October 22, 1772.

"I am sorry to acquaint you that we are in a very bad situation at present: Corn has sold here for some time at 5/4, 6/8, and 10/8 per bushel, flour at 30*s.* ship bread from 32*s.* to 35*s.* per Ct. very bad, and at present not any one article above-mentioned to sell in all Bermuda, except about 200 barrels of very bad old corn; we stand in great need of speedy relief, particularly with corn, having a very bad crop of potatoes. As it is in your power to give information to the public by advertisement, I should be much obliged to you to do it, by which means we may be relieved in our necessitous condition."

DECEMBER 2. In the New-York papers we find, that by the vigilance of the Magistrates, &c. in the County of Albany, no less than twelve persons were lately taken up and committed to goal, for counterfeiting and passing counterfeit money of that province. There were found in the possession of the different offenders, several plates for striking Three Pounds and Five Shillings, New-York bills, and Jersey bills of different denominations; also two presses, and a quantity of types; a stamp for Dollars, and other implements, with a quantity of bills, some finished, and some unfinished.

From Tortola we learn, that the hurricane, the last of August, was very hard there, and did considerable damage on the land, tearing up their canes, destroying houses, &c.---There were also a great number of vessels drove ashore, among which were the sloop Mary-Ann, Captain Gilbert, but got off again; sloop Johnson, Captain Rogers, of Liverpool, got off without much damage; sloop William, belonging to Spanish-Town, split to pieces; and two schooners and two sloops belonging to New-England. After the gale, a great number of vessels, that were drove out of the other islands, put into Tortola, amongst which were the brig Polly, Captain Magee, belonging to Cork, drove out of St. Eustatius, lost her main-mast, anchors, and cables; the brig Sally having cut away her main-mast, and the snow Leveret, Captain Feagin, of Cork, drove out of St. Eustatius, got in with the loss of both masts, anchors, and cables.

DECEMBER 7. Captain Johnson, from Cowes, informs us, that a number of vessels were lost on the coast of England in a hard gale of wind on the 22d and 23d of September; and that a large Danish ship from Norway, was brought by the pilots into Cowes, without one soul on board: He afterwards heard that her captain and three men were drowned, and the rest of her crew carried into Dover.

WILLIAMSBURG, (Virginia) NOVEMBER 19.

This day died, after a tedious and painful illness, the Honourable William Nelson, Esq; President of his Majesty's Council in this Colony. We cannot help condoling with the public, for the loss of so benevolent a Member of Society, so firm a Patriot, and so upright a Judge. Our affection and respect would lead us to draw this excellent character at full length, but we are certain his virtues have made too deep an impression on his countrymen, to need the assistance of Panegyric.

Lately died Mr. William Templeman, Merchant, in Fredericksburg; a gentleman who, for goodness of heart, integrity, and every social virtue, has hardly left behind him his fellow.

WILMINGTON, (in North-Carolina) DECEMBER 3.

On Saturday last, Cornelius Harnett, Esq; and Lady, arrived at their seat near this town, from the Northward.

This day we hear from Fort Johnston, that a small coasting vessel from Winyaw, was seized by the officers of his Majesty's ship SAVAGE, for having a few articles of merchandize on board, without a regular clearance.

CHARLES-TOWN, DECEMBER 22.

WEDNESDAY last the General Election for new Members to serve in the ensuing General Assembly of this Province ended, when the following Gentlemen were declared duly elected for the two Parishes in this Town, viz.

Christopher Gadsden, Charles Pinckney, and Roger Smith, Esquires, for St. Philip's Parish.

Miles Brewton, Thomas-Loughton Smith, and John Edwards, Esquires, for St. Michael's Parish.

We have not yet obtained a List of the Gentlemen elected for the several Country Parishes, but it is imagined it will be nearly the same as the last.

From Virginia we learn, that on the 25th of October last, the Rev. Mr. Camm, was sworn in one of the Members of his Majesty's Council for that Colony, and took his seat accordingly; and that the Rev. Mr. Horrocks, who lately died in Portugal, whither he had gone for the Benefit of his Health, was likewise a Member. This is perhaps, the only Province in America, where Clergymen are admitted as Members of that Board, unless in some of the new Governments.

We hear from Pensacola, that at a Court of Oyer and Terminer, holden there, Lieutenant Thomas was tried for killing Mr. Harrison, (as mentioned in this Paper of the 24th of August last, under the Jamaica Head, of July 4.) when after a Trial of 13 Hours, he was acquitted; it appearing that he was, in his own Defence, obliged to kill the Deceased.

Thursday last his Majesty's Sloop Savage, Captain Bromage, arrived here from Cape-Fear.

The same Day the Brig Prince of Wales, Captain Moore, arrived here from Philadelphia, in whom came Mrs. Sabina Elliott, Miss Elliott, Mr. Jonathan Sarrazin, and Mrs. Sarrazin, all of this Town, and several other Passengers.

The same Day the Brig Peggy, Captain Lawrence, arrived here from St. Croix, in whom came Passenger the Honourable Mr. Irvine, President of his Majesty's Council at Grenada.

The same Day put into this Port, in Distress, the Snow Providence, Abraham Mason, Master, from St. Kitts, bound for London.

Dr. John Powell, of this Province, arrived here last Thursday from the West-Indies, in the Fancy, Captain Barton.

The Schooner Tobago-Packet, Isaac Fordyce, Master, from Cape-Fear for the West Indies, put into this Port last Thursday.

Esq; Attorney at Law, to Miss Henrietta Sommers, eldest Daughter of Humphry Sommers, Esq.

A CONSIGNMENT

Of the ſeveral ARTICLES undermentioned, which may be had at his Printing-Office in Elliott-Street, on the moſt reaſonable Terms, viz.

A FRESH PARCEL of Dr. KEYSER's GENUINE PILLS,

With FULL DIRECTIONS for their Uſe in all CASES. Where may be ſeen, A NARRATIVE of the Effects of Dr. KEYSER's MEDICINE, with an Account of its ANALYSIS, by the Members of the Royal Academy of Science.

Dr. NELSON's ANTISCORBUTIC DROPS, which have been found by many Years Experience, to ſurpaſs all other Remedies hitherto diſcovered in the Cure of the Scurvy, Rheumatiſm, Yaws, Venereal Diſeaſe, Gleets and Seminal Weakneſſes, Ulcers of all Kinds, &c.

ESSENCE of OIL of MINT. This is an excellent Remedy in Want of Appetite, reachings to vomit, and vomiting itſelf. It ſtrengthens the almoſt Paralytic Weakneſſes of the Stomach, and may be uſed either internally or externally; it is taken on a Lump of Sugar, from ten to twelve Drops.

Dr. RYAN's Incomparable WORM-DESTROYING SUGAR PLUMBS.

Dr. HILL's genuine TINCTURE of VALERIAN. This pleaſant Cordial and enlivening Medicine, is good againſt all Nervous Diſorders, Fits, Head Achs, Weakneſs, Heavineſs, and Lowneſs of Spirits, Dimneſs of the Sight, Vapours and Melancholy, all Kinds of Convulſions, and Hyſteric Complaints, Epilepſies, as alſo againſt the Sickneſs of the Stomach, and Flatulencies, Obſtructions, and the Convulſive Aſthma, &c. The proper Uſe in all the above Caſes, may be ſeen in the Directions given with each Bottle.

Dr. BOERHAAVE's GRAND BALSAM of HEALTH. An admirable Remedy for the Dry Belly-Ach, Cholic, Griping in the Bowels, Pain in the Stomach; it cleanſes the Stomach, and procures an Appetite.

ESSENCE of BALM of GILEAD, a grand Reſtorative of decayed Nature, good in all Seminal Weakneſſes, Hypochondrical and Nervous Diſorders, with the Variety of Symptoms which indicate a weak and infirm Conſtitution.

Its cordial and balmy Quality, renders it alſo an agreeable palatable Liquor, and prodigiouſly refreſhing in the ſultry Heat of Summer; preventing thoſe Sinkings which over-power the Spirits in hot Weather. The proper Uſe of this noble Medicine may be ſeen in the Directions.

STOMACHIC LOZENGES. They ſtrengthen and ſortify by their balſamic and nutritive Virtues, the tender Veſſels of the Stomach, help Digeſtion, and promote Chylification; they melt in the Mouth like Sugar, are of a moſt agreeable Taſte, and fail not to correct the Breath, and the impure Exhalations of the Stomach.

Where alſo may be had,

JOYCE's GREAT AMERICAN BALSAM, extracted from the beſt Medicinal Herbs, &c. for the Cure of the following Diſorders, incident to human Nature; proved from Experience in New-York, Long-Iſland, and elſewhere, to equal, and rather exceed any Balſam, Eſſence, or Elixir, &c. exported from Europe here, for the ſeveral Diſorders hereafter mentioned.

For common green or freſh Wounds, it heals at once or twice dreſſing, by cloſing the Lips of the Wound, and laying on the Wound a Pledgit of Lint dipt in the Balſam. In Nervous Wounds, where the Blood Veſſels are divided, &c. it ſtops the Blood immediately, and heals by a few Applications. For the Cure of the moſt inveterate Ulcers, only waſh them and keep them clean, uſing firſt if there be any proud Fleſh, a common Cauſtick, to take the Excreſſence away, then apply the Balſam on Lint. If the Ulcers ſhould happen to be fiſtulous, inject by a Syringe, and after cloſe the Orifice with a Pledgit dipt in the Balſam, and ſo repeat. There are Witneſſes undeniable of the Balſam alone curing a Fiſtula in Ano, now preſent in New-York: The Author of this Balſam, (under God) will engage to cure a Fiſtula in Ano, even if the Rectum is perforated, without Inciſion, except as much by a Lancet to make Way for Injection, and no more. For the Cure of Colds, attended with violent Coughing, Pains in the Breaſt, Inflammation in the Throat and Glands, Difficulty of Breathing, being obſtructed by tough viſcid Phlegm; by taking a Tea Spoonful of the Balſam, mixed with Sugar or Honey, it quickly cures, taken twice a Day, Morning faſting, and at Night going to Bed. It is exceeding good in all Manner of Swellings; for violent Falls or inward Bruiſes, nothing is better, for it ſcatters coadgulated Blood, and ſtops Blood that might be occaſioned by the inward Parts being hurt, or a Rexis of Veſſels inwardly. In the Cure of Pleuriſy, after Bleeding (where it is required) give a Tea Spoonful three Times a Day, in Sugar, and between Times now and then 20 or 30 Drops of ſpirituous Nitri dulcis, that is the ſweet Spirits of Nitre.—It cures Conſumptions in them that are not too far gone, except they paſs the Age of Fifty, by taking of it inwardly three Times a Day, a full Tea Spoonful mixt with Sugar or Honey, each Doſe. It ſtrengthens the Nerves, and is good in all Nervous Diſorders, by taking of it inwardly, and anointing the Parts outwardly, keeping warm.

THE AGUE TINCTURE.

The Patient muſt take a Table Spoonful of the ELIXIR, two Hours before the Approach of the Fit, and be immediatly put to Bed, and excited to ſweat, by being very warmly covered. Every Half Hour repeat the Doſe in the ſame Quantity, until he or ſhe has taken Four; you are to obſerve the giving it with a little Sugar, to make it palatable, and let the laſt Doſe be given juſt as the Fit comes on; this will infallibly perform the Cure.

ALL Perſons that have any Demands againſt the Eſtate of Robert Yates, late of Charles-Town, deceaſed, are deſired to ſend them in, properly atteſted, to the Subſcriber, on or before the 10th Day of February next, as a final Diſpoſal of the Effects will be made that Day. ROBERT CRIPPS, Executor.
